

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

DAVID ROTH, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

-against-

SOUTHWEST CREDIT SYSTEMS, L.P.

Defendant.

Civil Action Number:

CIVIL ACTION
CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT
AND DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff DAVID ROTH (hereinafter, “Plaintiff”), a New York resident, brings this class action complaint by and through his attorneys, The Law Office of Alan J. Sasson, P.C., against Defendant SOUTHWEST CREDIT SYSTEMS, L.P. (hereinafter “Defendant”), individually and on behalf of a class of all others similarly situated, pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, based upon information and belief of Plaintiff’s counsel, except for allegations specifically pertaining to Plaintiff, which are based upon Plaintiff’s personal knowledge.

INTRODUCTION/PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. Congress enacted the FDCPA in 1977 in response to the “abundant evidence of the use of abusive, deceptive, and unfair debt collection practices by many debt collectors.” 15 U.S.C. § 1692(a). At that time, Congress was concerned that “abusive debt collection practices contribute to the number of personal bankruptcies, to material instability, to the loss of jobs, and to invasions of individual privacy.” Id. Congress concluded that “existing laws . . . [we]re inadequate to protect consumers,” and that “the effective collection of debts” does not require “misrepresentation or other abusive debt collection practices.” 15 U.S.C. §§ 1692(b) & (c).
2. Congress explained that the purpose of the Act was not only to eliminate abusive debt collection practices, but also to “insure that those debt collectors who refrain from using abusive debt collection practices are not competitively disadvantaged.” Id. § 1692(e). After determining that the existing consumer protection laws were inadequate, id. § 1692(b), Congress gave consumers a private cause of action against debt collectors who fail to comply with the Act. Id. § 1692k.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. The Court has jurisdiction over this class action under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, 15 U.S.C. § 1692 et seq. and 28 U.S.C. § 2201. If applicable, the Court also has pendent jurisdiction over the state law claims in this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).
4. Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2).

NATURE OF THE ACTION

5. Plaintiff brings this class action on behalf of a class of New York consumers seeking redress for Defendant’s illegal practices, in connection with the collection of a debt allegedly owed by Plaintiff in violation of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1692, et seq. (“FDCPA”).
6. Defendant's actions violated § 1692 et seq. of Title 15 of the United States Code, commonly referred to as the “FDCPA,” which prohibits debt collectors from engaging in abusive, deceptive and unfair practices.
7. Plaintiff is seeking damages, and declaratory and injunctive relief.

PARTIES

8. Plaintiff is a natural person and a resident of the State of New York, and is a “Consumer” as defined by 15 U.S.C. §1692(a)(3).
9. Defendant is a collection agency with an office maintained in Carrollton, Texas.
10. Defendant is a company that uses the mail, telephone, and facsimile and regularly engages in business the principal purpose of which is to attempt to collect debts alleged to be due another.

11. Defendant is a “debt collector,” as defined by the FDCPA under 15 U.S.C. § 1692a (6).

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiff brings claims, pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (hereinafter “FRCP”) Rule 23, individually and on behalf of the following nationwide consumer class (the “Class”):

- The class consists of all persons whom Defendants' records reflect resided in the State of New York and who were sent a collection letter in substantially the same form letter as the letter sent to the Plaintiff on or about October 5, 2016; and (a) the collection letter was sent to a consumer seeking payment of a personal debt purportedly owed to T-Mobile; and (b) the collection letter was not returned by the postal service as undelivered; (c) and Plaintiff asserts that the letter contained violations of 15 U.S.C. §§ 1692e and 1692f, for sending a collection letter which, among other things, attempts to collect an amount in excess of what is permitted by applicable law.
- The Class period begins one year to the filing of this Action.

13. The Class satisfies all the requirements of Rule 23 of the FRCP for maintaining a class action:

- Upon information and belief, the Class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable because there are hundreds and/or thousands of persons who have received debt collection letters and/or notices from Defendant that violate specific provisions of the FDCPA. Plaintiff is complaining of a standard form letter and/or notice that was sent to hundreds of persons (*See Exhibit A, except that the undersigned attorney has, in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 5.2 partially redacted the financial account numbers in an effort to protect Plaintiff's privacy);

- There are questions of law and fact which are common to the Class and which predominate over questions affecting any individual Class member. These common questions of law and fact include, without limitation:
  - a. Whether Defendant violated various provisions of the FDCPA;
  - b. Whether Plaintiff and the Class have been injured by Defendant's conduct;
  - c. Whether Plaintiff and the Class have sustained damages and are entitled to restitution as a result of Defendant's wrongdoing and if so, what is the proper measure and appropriate statutory formula to be applied in determining such damages and restitution; and
  - d. Whether Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to declaratory and/or injunctive relief.
- Plaintiff's claims are typical of the Class, which all arise from the same operative facts and are based on the same legal theories.
- Plaintiff has no interest adverse or antagonistic to the interest of the other members of the Class.
- Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interest of the Class and has retained experienced and competent attorneys to represent the Class.
- A Class Action is superior to other methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the claims herein asserted. Plaintiff anticipates that no unusual difficulties are likely to be encountered in the management of this class action.
- A Class Action will permit large numbers of similarly situated persons to prosecute their common claims in a single forum simultaneously and without the duplication of effort and expense that numerous individual actions would engender. Class treatment will also permit the adjudication of relatively small claims by many Class members who could not otherwise afford to seek legal redress for the wrongs complained of herein. Absent a Class Action, class members will continue to suffer losses of statutory protected rights as well as monetary damages. If Defendant's conduct is allowed proceed to without remedy they will continue to reap and retain the proceeds of their ill-gotten gains.

- Defendant has acted on grounds generally applicable to the entire Class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the Class as a whole.

ALLEGATIONS PARTICULAR TO DAVID ROTH

14. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs numbered "1" through "13" herein with the same force and effect as if the same were set forth at length herein.
15. Some time prior to October 5, 2016, an obligation was allegedly incurred by Plaintiff to T-Mobile.
16. The aforesaid obligation arose out of a transaction in which money, property, insurance or services, which are the subject of the transaction, are primarily for personal, family or household purposes.
17. The alleged T-Mobile obligation is a "debt" as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(5).
18. T-Mobile is a "creditor" as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(4).
19. Plaintiff is a "consumer" as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(3) of the FDCPA.
20. Defendant is a "debt collector" as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(6) of the FDCPA.
21. At a time known only to Defendant, T-Mobile, directly or through an intermediary, contracted Defendant to collect T-Mobile's debt.

22. In its effort to collect on the T-Mobile obligation, Defendant contacted Plaintiff by written correspondence on October 5, 2016. See Exhibit A.
23. The Letter was sent or caused to be sent by persons employed by Defendant as a "debt collector" as defined by 15 U.S.C. §1692a (6).
24. The Letter is a "communication" as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a (2).
25. 15 U.S.C. § 1692f prohibits the collection of any amount (including any interest, fee, charge, or expense incidental to the principal obligation) unless such amount is expressly authorized by the agreement creating the debt or permitted by law.
26. Congress adopted the provisions of section 1692f with the stated intent to prohibit debt collectors from attempting collection of any amount unless such amount is expressly authorized by the agreement creating the debt or permitted by law.
27. Defendant's attempt at collecting more than what it initially stated was owed is exactly the type of harm Congress contemplated when enacting Section 1692f.
28. As such, Defendant's violations of the FDCPA created the risk of real harm that Plaintiff would overpay and thereby incur a significant monetary deficit due to Defendant's actions, when in reality; the amount allegedly owed on the debt would preclude such action.
29. Defendant's actions as described herein are part of a pattern and practice used to collect debts.
30. As set forth in the following Counts Defendant violated the FDCPA.

First Count
Violation of 15 U.S.C. §§ 1692e, 1692f *et seq
The Charging of Unlawful Fees

31. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs numbered “1” through “30” herein with the same force and effect as if the same were set forth at length herein.

32. Collection letters such as those sent by defendant are to be evaluated by the objective standard of the hypothetical “least sophisticated consumer.”

33. Section 1692e(10) states that:

A debt collector may not use any false, deceptive, or misleading representation or means in connection with the collection of any debt.... the following conduct is a violation of this section:

(10) the use of any false representation or deceptive means to collect or attempt to collect any debt or to obtain information concerning a consumer.

34. Section 1692f(1) states that:

A debt collector may not use unfair or unconscionable means to collect or attempt to collect any debt. Without limiting the general application of the foregoing, the following conduct is a violation of this section:

(1) The collection of any amount (including any interest, fee, charge, or expense incidental to the principal obligation) unless such amount is expressly authorized by the agreement creating the debt or permitted by law.

35. That Defendant attempts to recover a Collection Fee in the amount of $261.36 is improper.

36. That said Collection Fee is a fee charged and collected by Defendant.

37. That same is not expressly authorized by any agreement that Plaintiff has with the original creditor.

38. That the Collection Fee is not permitted by any applicable law.

39. That, as and for an alternative, Defendant retains all or a portion of the Collection Fee.

40. That Defendant’s retention of all or a portion of the Collection Fee is not expressly authorized by any agreement that plaintiff has with the original creditor.

41. That Defendant's statement in its collection letter regarding the Collection Fee is an attempt to collect an amount which is not permitted by the FDCPA, § 1692f (1).
42. That Defendant's statement in its collection letter regarding the Collection Fee constitutes an unfair and unconscionable means used by Defendant in its attempt to collect a debt, in violation of the FDCPA, including but not limited to § 1692f (1).
43. That further, Defendant's statement in its collection letter regarding the Collection Fee also falsely represents the compensation which may be lawfully received by Defendant for the collection of the debt, in violation of the FDCPA, including but not limited to Section 1692e and 1692e(2)(B).
44. That Defendant's statement in its collection letter regarding the Collection Fee constitutes a false, deceptive, and misleading representation or means used by Defendant in connection with the collection of a debt, in violation of the FDCPA Sections 1692e and 1692e(10).
45. That further, Defendant's statement in its collection letter regarding the Collection Fee is a threat to take an action that cannot be legally taken, viz., to add a fee that is not authorized by any law or by the agreement between Plaintiff and the original creditor which created the alleged debt, and is therefore a violation of the FDCPA, Section 1692e (5).
46. Defendant used false representation and deceptive means to attempt to collect $261.36 in Collection Fees without evidencing the basis for the added fee in violation of 15 U.S.C. §§ 1692e, 1692e (2), 1692e (5), 1692e (10), and 1692f (1).
47. Plaintiff seeks to end these violations of the FDCPA. Plaintiff and putative class members are entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief, including, declaratory relief, and damages.

48. By reason thereof, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff for judgment that Defendant's conduct violated Section 1692f et seq. of the FDCPA, actual damages, statutory damages, costs and attorneys' fees.

Second Count
Violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1692g.
Validation of Debts

49. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs numbered "1" through "48" herein with the same force and effect as if the same were set forth at length herein.

50. 15 U.S.C. § 1692e prohibits a debt collector from using any false, deceptive, or misleading representation or means in connection with the collection of any debt.

51. While § 1692e specifically prohibits certain practices, the list is non-exhaustive, and does not preclude a claim of falsity or deception based on any non-enumerated practice.

52. Collection notices are deceptive if they can be reasonably read to have two or more different meanings, one of which is inaccurate.

53. The question of whether a collection letter is deceptive is determined from the perspective of the "least sophisticated consumer."

54. § 1692e requires debt collectors, when they notify consumers of their account balance, to disclose whether the balance may increase due to interest and fees. Avila v. Riexinger & Associates, LLC, 817 F.3d 72, 76 (2d Cir. 2016).

55. The letter fails to disclose whether the balance may further increase due to interest, charges or fees, as Defendant has already begun to assess an unspecified "Collection Fee."

56. Plaintiff was unaware of whether the balance may further increase due to interest, charges or fees.

57. The letter can be read to have two or more meanings.

58. The letter can reasonably be read to mean that the balance due on the credit card account is static.
59. The letter can also reasonably be read to mean that the balance due on the credit card account may increase due to interest, charges or fees.
60. Plaintiff's ability to know how she could satisfy the debt was frustrated.
61. Defendant violated § 1692e by its failure to disclose whether Plaintiff's balance may increase due to interest and fees.
62. Because the letter can be reasonably read to have two or more different meanings, one of which is inaccurate, as described above, it is deceptive within the meaning of 15 U.S.C. § 1692e.
63. Because the letter is reasonably susceptible to an inaccurate reading, as described above, it is deceptive within the meaning of 15 U.S.C. § 1692e.
64. Defendant violated § 1692e by using a false, deceptive and misleading representation in its attempt to collect a debt.
